Traditional Country Singer & Yodeler
Naomi Bristow

After amazing crowds at the 2018 Listowel Fair with her talent, Naomi Bristow is performing once again this year's fair! Naomi is a young artist that hails from a small farm in Ontario. Her family was involved in the rodeo life which led her down the path of country, western and gospel music. At a young age, Naomi has made some impressive contributions to the industry which include opening for Gene Watson, Johnny Reid, David Frizzell, Moe Bandy, Ronda Vincent, Charlie Daniels, Marty Stuart, Jim Ed Brown, George Canyon, Bobby Bare, Dean Brody and many others. She has won the "Fan's Choice Award" from the Havelock Jamboree, the "Rising Star Award" from the B.C. Cowboy Heritage Festival and the Western Music Association two time winner, "Youth Yodeler of the Year." Naomi has recorded 6 CD's that demonstrate her incredible singing and yodeling talents earning her "Best Traditional Yodel Album of the Year 2010." Naomi has had the absolute honour of recording in Nashville featuring Grand Ole Opry stars Jim Ed Brown, Richard Sterban and recently recorded a gospel album with Vince Gill. Naomi was also featured on Canada's Got Talent in the 2012 season. Naomi will capture your heart with her performance!

After the performance, check out the exhibits in the Ag. Hall. The Ag. Hall is open on Friday, July 19th from 10am to 10pm.
